Guidelines for Applicants to the 2024 Doctoral Program

• In the case that the contents of this Guidelines for Applicants are changed due to the effects of novel coronavirus infection, etc., we will announce the change on the following website, so you should check it often.

(<https://www.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/en/soe/admission/general-guideline>)

• In some cases, the entrance examination may be conducted on the Application Schedule B (Winter exam) for the departments for which enrollment capacity is not written in “Enrollment capacity (Application Schedule B), 6. Examination Subjects and Enrollment Capacity for Each Department”. We will announce the implementation on the above website around October 1, 2023.

Research and Education Goal

Our academic research aims are to develop talented individuals who, with a basis in engineering, boldly take up the challenge of exploring unexplored fields and new technological innovations, contribute to the sustainability and development of human society, and who are able to acquire systematic knowledge regarding science and technology as well as an engineering-based thinking, and have the ability to solve social problems with an understanding of diversity and a broad perspective.

Intended Applicants

- 1) Strongly motivated to study in accordance with the Research and Education Goal of the Graduate School.
- 2) In addition to advanced expertise in one's major field of study, possess engineering and logical thinking skills as well as creativity, and have a strong desire to solve social problems.
- 3) Possess excellent communication skills, foreign language proficiencies, and sound ethics, respect diversity and aspire to contribute to the international community.

2. Acceptance of Mature Students

- (1) Mature students are eligible for acceptance in each department. Departments shall accept mature students.
- (2) Persons currently working as full-time employees at companies, educational and research institutes, and other organizations may undertake studies in this doctoral program, concurrent with such employment.
- (3) Selection of applicants shall take into consideration factors including the applicant's master's thesis and related research achievements.

3. How to Apply

The periods for acceptance of applications are divided into two categories - Application Schedule A and Application Schedule B - as indicated below (3).

However, Application Schedule B does not apply to some departments, so please confirm with the department intended for application in advance. Applicants will not be prevented from applying during both acceptance periods, but persons wishing to enter the School in October 2023 shall be subject to the limitations of Application Schedule A.

- (1) Applicants are asked to complete the entrance application form via the WEB Application System.
(<https://www.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/en/soe/admission/general-guideline>)
- (2) All application documents must be uploaded online to a designated location. For details, check the Graduate School of Engineering website.
(<https://www.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/en/soe/admission/general-guideline>)
- (3) Upload period

Application Schedule A: From June 29 (Thursday) until 3:00 p.m., July 5 (Wednesday), 2023 (Japan time)

Application Schedule B: From November 27 (Monday) until 3:00 p.m., December 1 (Friday), 2023 (Japan time)

* However, for "other" in "Documents for Submission," refer to the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" of the department to which the application will be sent, as the submission method or period may differ.

4. Examination Dates and Locations

- (1) Application Schedule A:

Primary examinations will be held over five days, from August 28 (Monday) through September 1 (Friday), 2023. For details on times and locations, refer to the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" from the department to which application will be sent.

The written examinations of Regular education subjects (General education) will be held at the specified examination sites (on the Hongo campus).

Secondary examinations will take place between late January and the mid-February, 2024. Eligible candidates will be notified of the date and location of the exam by early January 2024. However, the secondary examinations for persons falling under either of the following will be held over five days, from August 28 (Monday) through September 1 (Friday), 2023.

- ① Those who have already obtained a master's degree or professional degree at the time of application, or who are expected to receive a master's degree or professional degree by September 30, 2023. (Note 1)
- ② Those who wish to apply for October 2023 entry.

Note 1) Secondary examinations will, in some cases, take place sometime between late January and the mid-February, even if candidates fall under ①. Please refer to the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" from the department to which application will be sent, or to the notice provided along with the examination admission card.

(2) Application Schedule B:

Primary and secondary examinations will be held between mid-December 2023 and early January 2024 or between late January 2024 and mid-February 2024. Please refer to the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" of the department to which the application will be sent. Candidates will be advised of examination dates and other relevant information in December 2023, when examination admission card notices will be provided.

5. Selection Methods

- (1) Selection shall be based on primary and secondary examinations.
- (2) Selection for the primary examination shall be based on a written examination, an oral examination, and submitted documents.
- (3) Some departments make selections based on submitted documents. Written examinations, and oral examinations may be conducted only for those who have passed the selections based on the documents. Examination fees will not be refunded even if applicants do not pass the document-based selections. For details, refer to the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" of the department to which the application will be sent.
- (4) The secondary examination shall be in regard to the applicant master's thesis or a related topic. The secondary examination will only be conducted for persons who pass the primary examination.
- (5) Selection of Students for admission shall be based on a comprehensive judgment, taking into account the written examination, the oral examination, submitted documents, the applicant's master's thesis and other related materials.

6. Examination Subjects and Enrollment Capacity for Each Department (Application Schedule A)

For details of written examination subjects, foreign languages (English), oral examinations and subjects on Application Schedule B, please refer to the “Guide to Entrance Examinations” from the department to which application will be sent, and other related information.

8. Announcement of Successful Applicants and Admission Procedures

(1) Application Schedule A:

1. Examinee numbers of successful applicants for Application Schedule A and the applicants who have passed the primary examinations in Application Schedule A will be posted on the Graduate School of Engineering website about 4:00 p.m. on September 7 (Thursday), 2023.

(<https://www.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/en/soe>)

The Applicants who are eligible to take the secondary examination in Application Schedule A will be posted on the Graduate School of Engineering website (see above) about 4:00 p.m. on February 15 (Thursday), 2024.

2. Approval for admission of applicants on Application Schedule A will be notified by email as follows.

- Applicants approved for admission in October 2023

Approval for admission will be notified in September 2023.

Those who submitted The University of Tokyo Security Export Control Confirmation Form: Approval for admission will be notified once they have cleared screening by The University of Tokyo Security Export Control.

- Applicants approved for admission in April 2024

Approval for admission will be notified in February 2024. However, the successful applicants announced in September 2023 will be notified in mid-November 2023.

Those who submitted The University of Tokyo Security Export Control Confirmation Form: Approval for admission will be notified once they have cleared screening by The University of Tokyo Security Export Control.

(2) Application Schedule B:

1. Examinee numbers of successful applicants for Application Schedule B will be posted on the Graduate School of Engineering website (see above) about 4:00 p.m. on January 11 (Thursday), 2024 or February 15 (Thursday), 2024. Please refer to the “Guide to Entrance Examinations” of the department you are applying to.
2. Approval for admission of applicants on Application Schedule B will be notified by email in mid-February 2024. Those who submitted The University of Tokyo Security Export Control Confirmation Form: Approval for admission will be notified once they have cleared screening by The University of Tokyo Security Export Control.

- (3) Persons receiving notification of authorization for admission in April 2024 shall carry out the required admission procedures by March 11 (Monday), 2024(tentative), in accordance with instructions regarding admission procedures that will be notified by email later. Persons receiving notification of authorization for admission in October 2023 shall carry out the required admission procedures by September 20 (Wednesday), 2023(tentative), as well. Please note that persons who do not carry out the admission procedures by the deadline will be deemed as having opted out of admissions.
- (4) The School will not accept telephone, fax, e-mail, or other inquiries regarding the success of applications.
- (5) Fees required for admission (tentative fees for 2024)
(These fees are not required for international students on scholarships from the Japanese government (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology). In addition, no admission fee will be charged to students who are expected to complete a master's or professional degree program in a graduate school at the University of Tokyo.)
1. Admission fee: 282,000 yen (tentative fee)
 2. Tuition fees: First term: 260,400 yen (Annual fee: 520,800 yen) (tentative fee)
- (Note) The amounts indicated above are tentative. If amounts are amended at the time of admission or while the individual is registered as a student, the new amounts shall apply from the time of the amendment in question.

9. Precautionary Notes

- (1) Applicants cannot apply to two or more departments in the Graduate School of Engineering at the same time. Those who have passed the primary examination of the Application Schedule A of the school cannot apply for the Application Schedule B without declining the success in the examination. Also, applicants cannot be enrolled in other universities or other schools at the University of Tokyo at the same time as the Graduate School of Engineering.
- (2) Applications will not be accepted if the specified documents are not complete and in order by the submission date indicated above. After the application process is complete, no changes to documents will be accepted and no documents will be returned, under any circumstances.
- (3) The examination admission card will be issued by email. If you do not receive an email about the examination admission card by the following approximate schedule, please inquire to the administrative department (refer to 11. Contact) of the graduate school and receive instructions regarding the examination.
- Application Schedule A: August 7 (Monday), 2023
 - Application Schedule B: December 19 (Tuesday), 2023
- (4) Those who wish to enter the university while still being employed are required to submit upon entry to the university, a Letter of Approval (in any format) from their employer (as long as the one who approves you holds a higher position than you, then the exact position does not matter) certifying that their “in office status” does not in any way interfere with them entering the university.
- (5) In the School of Engineering, some departments allow admissions in October 2023 in addition to admissions in April 2024. For more details, refer to the “Guide to Entrance Examinations” of the department you are applying to.
- (6) Persons with disabilities may require special consideration when taking examinations and attending courses. Such persons are requested to contact the School of Engineering Administrative Division (refer to 11. Contact) and the Administration Office for the department to which the application is being sent (before submitting the application).

- (7) Non-Japanese applicants must have a visa that will allow admission to a Japanese graduate school, as stipulated in the “Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act (Law No. 319, 1951),” by the time of admission procedures.
- (8) Under some circumstances, application procedures, examination dates and way of conducting, and other details may be subject to change.
- (9) Once paid, examination fees will not be refunded under any circumstances.
- (10) After the admission process is completed, admission fees will not be refunded under any circumstances.
- (11) Personal information obtained through the application process, including the applicant’s name and address, will be used for: 1) selection of applicants (application processing, selection); 2) announcement of successful applicants; and 3) admission procedures. For successful applicants, this personal information will be used for: 1) administrative purposes (school registration, attendance, etc.); 2) student support (health management, employment support, applications for scholarships and exemptions from tuition fees, use of libraries, etc.); and 3) operations related to the collection of tuition fees.
- (12) The examination results used in the selection of entrants may be used in future studies for the improvement of both the entrance examination and education systems at the University of Tokyo.
- (13) In case of an unexpected situation such as a natural disaster, please note that information related to entrance examinations will be offered on the Graduate School of Engineering website.

10. Response to fraud

If any false statement or forgery is found in the application documents, or if there is clear evidence that there was any fraudulent activity during the examination, that student’s admittance may be canceled even after enrolling in or going on to a graduate school.

May 2023

The University of Tokyo has established the “The University of Tokyo Security Export Control Regulations” in accordance with Japan’s “Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act”, and rigorously implements security export control for potential students before and after their enrollment on the basis of these regulations. In particular, pre-enrollment screenings are mandatory for all international students and also for Japanese students in certain circumstances.

Please be aware that applicants who fall under any of the conditions set out in the Act may not receive permission to enroll at the university or may have their research activities restricted after their enrollment even if they have passed the entrance examinations.

Notice regarding Foreign Language (English) Examinations in 2024 Graduate School of Engineering, The University of Tokyo Entrance Examinations (How to submit TOEFL score) (Doctoral Program 【Application Schedule B】)

*TOEFL ITP will not be conducted on the day of Graduate School of Engineering entrance examination.

- ◆ Students should submit an official TOEFL score from a test administered in February 2022 or later.
- ◆ Students should plan ahead to allow ample time for taking a TOEFL test before applying for the entrance examination. It would be better to confirm your TOEFL score to be submitted, before entering the Appointment Number in the WEB Application System.
- ◆ Deadline for submission of score depends on the department. Please check the Guide to Entrance Examinations for the department of your choice.

〔How to submit TOEFL scores〕

- The official scores of TOEFL iBT test or TOEFL iBT Home Edition test are valid. Please check the ETS website for information on how to apply for the TOEFL test and for confirmation of required equipment and examination environment of the TOEFL iBT Home Edition.
- Be sure to request ETS to transmit your score to our graduate school when registering for a TOEFL test. Applicants who already have a TOEFL score and plan to submit that score should also request ETS to transmit the score report to our graduate school. Please check the ETS website for information on how to request ETS to transmit your score.

Send TOEFL Institutional Score Report to (TOEFL DI Code for Graduate School of Engineering):

- We cannot accept your scores if you do not use these exact codes.
DI (Designated Institution) Code: "8596" (University of Tokyo Engineering)
Department Code: "99" (Any Department Not Listed)

- Students should enter the Appointment Number and the Test Date of your TOEFL score to be submitted in the WEB Application System at the time of application.
- If you submit more than one score, only the score of the Appointment Number and the Test Date you entered from the WEB Application System will be valid.
- The score report data that you entered at the time of application will be checked online. As long as you order this report and there is no problem during your TOEFL test, we should receive your score report data online about 2 weeks after you take the test.
- We accept the score report data that we receive online as your foreign language exam score, so it is not necessary that the score report arrives at our graduate school by mail before the deadline.

〔Notes〕

- You are not required to submit a Test Taker Score Report.
- No changes to the submitted TOEFL scores are allowed after submitting your application for the entrance examination.
- There has been some trouble with TOEFL, such as test cancellations and postponements on the day of the test or delays in issuing official scores. Please plan ahead to allow ample time for taking an exam.
- Please check the information on the ETS website and send your score with sufficient time to arrive by the deadline.
- Foreign language (English) exams of Graduate School of Engineering Entrance Examinations use “Test Date Scores”. We do not use “MyBest Scores”.
- TOEFL ITP Plus for China (students living in mainland China only) will be also accepted. When submitting a TOEFL ITP Plus for China score, please submit a copy of the score notified to your Vericant account along with your admissions application documents. Also, from the "Send to Schools" page on the Vericant student portal site, specify the University of Tokyo (Engineering) as the data recipient.
