※Please refer to "Notice regarding Foreign Language (English) Examinations in 2025/The University of Tokyo Graduate School of Engineering Entrance Examinations (How to submit TOEFL score)(Master's Program, Doctoral Program [Application Schedule A・B])" for instructions on how to submit TOEFL scores.

※Please be sure to check the "Guide to Entrance Examinations" for the department of your choice for foreign language (English) examinations and deadlines for submission of TOEFL or other scores.

In particular, please pay attention to the following points:

- TOEFL and other score submission deadlines may also specify a time of day, not only a date.
- For doctoral programs, applicants may be exempted from taking the foreign language (English) examination.

※Foreign language (English) examinations for the Master's Program (Application Schedule B) (whether or not it will be administered has yet to be determined) will be announced separately from now.
