Organized by Asia's top engineering schools, this workshop brings together young female professionals in engineering disciplines. Insightful plenary and keynote lectures, panel discussions, mentoring sessions, and on-the-site job interviews will help participants kick-start their academic career in one of the top Asian universities.

Eligibility of Applicants:

- All women (cis and trans); and
- Fluent in English; and one of the following
- Fresh PhD graduates or PhD students close to graduation in engineering-related disciplines; or
- Postdocs or young researchers with engineering PhD degrees; or
- Young engineers with PhD degrees working in industry who are interested in exploring careers in academia

Participants from a previous Asian Deans' Forum – The Rising Stars Women in Engineering Workshop are not eligible to apply again.
